

Conneaut Boat Club

Launch Agreement

Launch and lift-out operations at the Conneaut Boat Club are under the direct supervision of the boat owner or a person presenting a signed authorization of the owner. The lift of the vessel from a trailer or jack-stands is at the direction of the owner and according to the specifications of the owner. The Conneaut Boat Club accepts no liability for the proper lift of the vessel to or from a trailer, jacks-stands or water.

The Conneaut Boat Club reserves the right to refuse to launch or retrieve any vessel, owned by a member or non-member, if the lift is determined to be dangerous and places the property and safety of the club in jeopardy or proof of valid, adequate insurance cannot be presented at time of lift. The Conneaut Port Authority requires all vessels docked in the Conneaut Lagoon to have adequate insurance.

By signature below the vessel owner accepts these conditions.
